Hello,

My name is Heather and I am asking if you would give me a shot at the open position to prove myself to your company. I am hard working and love learning new things. I may not have any job experience, but I have done lots of side jobs and can do almost anything and if I don't know how to do something I don't mind asking so I can learn. Also I am very outgoing and get along with everyone. I am a mother of 3 kids and use to being a stay at home mom and house wife, so I have lots of patience and I am a perfectionist. Please consider me for the position.

Thank you,
Heather Maroney
